Jeremy King

February 04, 2012 2:00 AM

EPPING — Jeremy "Jerry" King, 78, died Friday, Jan. 27, 2012, at his home after a courageous battle with cancer.

He was born July 1, 1933, in Flushing, N.Y., son of the late Theodore and Violet M. (Fillebrown) King.

Jerry grew up in Boston, Mass., and graduated from English High School. He attended the University of Maine for a year. Jerry enlisted in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War. He was discharged in 1955 as a machinist mate and had proudly served on the USS Leyte.

Jerry had been a repairman for 42 years and was employed by AT&T.

He was a former resident of Cohasset, Mass., for 32 years and had been living in Epping since 1988.

In his spare time, Jerry loved gardening and drawing and painting with watercolors.

He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Phyllis (Sampson) King of Epping and several nieces and nephews.

SERVICES: Services and a graveside committal with military honors will be held at Prospect Cemetery, Epping, in the spring. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to the Rockingham Visiting Nurses Association and Hospice, 137 Epping Road, Exeter, NH 03833. Brewitt Funeral Home, Epping, is handling arrangements. To sign the online guest book, visit www.brewittfuneralhome.com.