Merry Christmas

1950

DINNER aboard the U.S.S. LEYTE

CV-32

Our thoughts are turned homeward this Christmas as they were last year in Naples. Yet the fact that our ship has stood guard for two years at each end of the earth has been a stabilizing factor in permitting this Christmas to be celebrated not only at home but in other free lands.

It is the spirit of Christmas, the thought of the welfare of others, which makes a country strong, a ship good and an individual happy.

With this thought in mind I wish you a Merry Christmas and hope that we may spend next Christmas at home.

Capt. C. U. Sisson, USN
