

Funeral Set Today For Wreck Victim

Funeral services for Chief Petty Officer Manly Paschall Zell who was killed in an automobile accident on Meeting Street Road early Sunday morning will be held today at Connelley Memorial Chapel at 10 a.m.

Chaplain C. L. Iley will officiate. Burial will be in Boston, Mass.

CPO Zell was attached to the Fleet Training Squadron here. He made his home at 202-A Celtic Street, North Charleston.

He was born in Durham, N. C. on Sept. 9, 1928. He was educated in the schools of Durham. He was a veteran of World War II and the Korean war and was awarded the Purple Heart Medal.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Catherine Winfred Zell; a daughter, Debra Ann Zell; a son, Christopher Allen Zell, all of Charleston; his mother, Mrs. Edna Petty Hunley of Durham; a half sister, Miss Linda Hunley of Durham; and a great aunt, Mrs. C. I. Olive of Durham.

The News and Courier

South Carolina's Most Outspoken Newspaper

FOUNDED JAN. 10, 1803

Thomas R. Waring
Editor

Arthur M. Wilcox
Assistant Editor

Anthony Harrigan
Associate Editor

8-A CHARLESTON, S. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1959
